After some discussion the council instructed the clerk to write the railway company with a view to having the track removed and the street put in proper shape.

Dogs Menace Sheep In Ancaster Tp. Sheep Bill $1000

The menace of dogs to farmers' flocks of sheep has been a problem of great moment in Ancaster township, according to several farmers of that district who keep sheep and the township council is considering the matter carefully at the present time and seeking some means of alleviating the trouble. The bill paid last year by the council for sheep killed by dogs was over $1,000, whereas the income from dog tax, which is intended to cover this expenditure amounts to only some five or six hundred dollars.

There are a lot of farmers in the township who would like to keep sheep, one farmer stated, "but the menace of dogs is such that they hesitate about doing so. These dogs either kill the sheep or worry them so much that they are useless either for their wool or for mutton. Most of the dogs that run out in the country running around the fields have no tags on them and there is no way of telling who owns them, even if you do catch them."

"The assessor of township property has been asked by the relieved of the assessor of finding out where there are dogs," the farmer went on, "because there are a lot of people who won't own up to possessing a dog and who will hide the animal in the cellar when the assessor comes round." He explained that it was a most difficult matter to keep track of all the canines in the country.

Boy Dies From Meningitis

A 9-year-old boy died April 12, in the General Hospital, Hamilton, of almost virulent type of spinal meningitis. He was Joseph Neil Roberts of 129 Stanley Avenue, and his death was the first to have occurred this year from the dread malady. Dr. James Roberts, M.D., took steps to quarantine members of the family who had contact with the boy.

Officials of the Ontario Department of Health stated that there was "nothing abnormal" either in the occurrence of spinal meningitis at this season of the year, nor in the number of cases that have been reported so far.

Corn Borer Act To be Enforced

No Slackening Up As Thorough Clean-up Every Year Necessary.

There have been rumors that the Corn Borer Act would not be enforced this year. Such rumors are unfounded, state L. Cassar, Provincial Entomologist, and Harlan Strong, Corn Borer Inspector for the County of Lincoln. The Provincial Entomologist in March called a meeting of the corn borer inspectors, discussed with them their duties and gave instructions that there should be no slackening up in the enforcement of the Act. He said the borer was just as dangerous as ever and the only safeguard against serious loss to the corn lay in a thorough clean-up every year; each farmer doing his share. It was pointed out that the weather was a very important factor in determining whether we could get a reduction in the number of borers any particular year. Some years the weather would favor the insect so much that all a good clean-up could do would be to prevent a very large increase. Other years the weather would help us and there would be a decrease.

It should be borne in mind that there seems no prospect of its being safe to withdraw the Corn Borer Act for many years to come; in fact we may have to require a compulsory clean-up for years just as they have to in parts of Europe, the home of the borer. Hence the wise course for farmers to follow is to adopt the best method of handling their corn fields each year so that they will have little or no trouble in doing so. A compulsory clean-up for years just as they have to in parts of Europe, the home of the borer. Hence the wise course for farmers to follow is to adopt the best method of handling their corn fields each year so that they will have little or no trouble in doing so.

Owing to economic conditions all over the province it is especially desirable this year that clean-up of corn fields be completed early, so that expenses be kept as low as possible, consistent with efficiency. Hence farmers and also corn growers in cities and towns are urged to co-operate by having all corn remnants destroyed not later than May 20th.

Any person wishing to get further information on the borer and the best methods of control should write to the Director of Statistics and Publications, East Block, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, and ask for a copy of Bulletin No. 238.

Program Complete For the Athletic Association Concert

Arrangements were fully completed on Tuesday night for the concert sponsored by the Amateur Athletic Association which will be held on Friday night, April 24th, at Moore's Theatre. Tickets went on sale Monday morning. It is customary to buy tickets for such entertainments of this kind from the community appreciate a feeling of this kind towards their organization. They do not think that this particular concert should warrant too much sentiment.

The committee has gone to a lot of expense on the program to make it the most outstanding that has been introduced to the public in Grimsby for years and the thought uppermost in their minds was a dignified introduction of this new organization to the citizens of Grimsby. The price of the tickets proves that this particular concert is not a money making scheme. The committee are desirous of having all the citizens who are here present on this occasion. There are only 450 tickets available, so first come, first served, and no doubt it will be a sell-out.

West Lincoln Branch Joins Legion Drive

During the month of April the Canadian Legion of the B. E. S. L. in Ontario will put forth a province-wide effort to add 10,000 new members to its strength. The West Lincoln branch, Lincoln and Welland, is taking an active part in the campaign and has set as the local objective 50.

Brought into existence over five years ago as a result of Field Marshal Earl Haig's personal appeal for unity to the several conflicting organizations the Canadian Legion has continued to expand until to-day it has a membership of some 90,000 comprised in 900 branches throughout Canada, as well as branches in the United States, West Indies, and France. After making due allowance for deaths on active service and depletion of ranks through deaths and other causes since the Armistice, it is estimated that the strength of the Legion should eventually be three times the present number. The Ontario membership campaign in April is the first step in Ontario towards this greater objective.

Officers of the Legion point out that the service work of the organization has been rendered freely to all veterans without distinction of membership. Legislative benefits secured by Legion have been to the advantage of the whole war veteran body. It is felt that the responsibility of this highly important work should be borne equally by all veterans. At the same time the privilege of participating in the extensive and varied program and community work, as well as the amenities of the social life and activity of the Legion, is made available by active membership.

Hamilton, 23, married, with two children, who arrived from Gilbert Plains, Man., recently to settle on a farm seven miles from town, was pinned under a huge tree when it toppled over the wrong way while he and Russell Buchanan were felling it. Buchanan could not lift the trunk alone, and Hamilton was dead from suffocation when help came.

John Schuk, a Russian, about 40 years old, who owned a bush lot near Bourkes, drank half of the contents of a ten-ounce bottle of sulphuric acid in a stable on the farm of Valentine Kromdachuk, with whom he lived, and died in agony after telling of his deed.

Princes Leave For England

Prince of Wales and Brother End 29,000-Mile Tour of South America

Rio De Janeiro.—The Prince of Wales and Prince George, his youngest brother, sailed for home on the liner Arlanza Sunday evening, terminating a 29,000-mile good will tour of South American countries.

The ship sailed at 6.35 p.m. The Princes were given a cordial farewell. Thousands cheered as they went up the gang plank and stood on the ship's deck, waving as the liner moved out of the bay.

The Princes have visited most of the countries of South America during the past several weeks. The peak of their tour, in so far as their trade mission was concerned, occurred last month at Buenos Aires, where the Prince of Wales formally opened the British Trade Exhibition.

Many New Industries To Start in Manitoba

Winnipeg, Man.—Mr. J. M. Davidson, secretary of the Industrial Development Board of Manitoba, who has recently returned from a trip through the east and south, reported at a meeting of his board that new industries will be established in the province, involving an aggregate expenditure of more than $5,000,000.

The prospective industries include food products, implements, two furniture factories, building material, and household products, based on the packing industry.

There will be a beet sugar refinery here next year, as the result of experimentation which has been carried on for several years in the province.

Six-Engined Planes For Tasmanian Trip

Hobart, Tasmania.—Planes driven by six engines are being planned to replace the three-engined machines now handling the tri-weekly service between Tasmania and Melbourne.

So successful has the present service proved that a daily service is now proposed, so that any day Tasmanians may hop across Bass Strait after breakfast and take their midday meal with friends in Melbourne.

The passage via northern Tasmania is scheduled for four hours, clipping 18 hours off the rail-steam time.—The Christian Science Monitor.

When Cold, Shiver, Says Scientist

Body's Method of Resisting Cold and Manufacturing Heat

Montreal.—Lacking a comfortably-heated atmosphere or a fur coat, the thing to do is to indulge in plenty of plain and fancy shivering, according to Dr. R. W. Swift of the University of Rochester, who read a paper before the physiological section of the Federation of American Societies for experimental biology in session here.

People shiver to keep warm—and it is a good substitute for that, Dr. Swift said. Shivering is the body's method of manufacturing heat, he explained. Dr. Swift said he had experimented with volunteers who had been placed in a refrigerator for varying periods while electrical apparatus was attached to their bodies to register the efficacy of their shivering. Those who lost themselves most readily to shivering stood the cold test best, he said.

French War Budget Shows Big Cut

Paris.—There is no indecision in France's attitude toward the forthcoming World Disarmament Conference at Geneva in 1932, if comments on France's recently approved 1931-1932 war budget are to be taken at their face value.

Although the present budget is 180,000,000 francs higher than in 1930, French writers have brought forth figures to show that France's military expenses, compared with 1914, show a greater drop than any great power. The official table showed:

France	16 per cent. less than 1914
Italy	14 " " " "
Britain	10 " " " "
Japan	48 per cent. more than 1914
U.S.	36 " " " "

Another table shows that France has reduced her fighting effectiveness 45 per cent. in the same period, while England has reduced 19 per cent, and Japan 25 per cent. Germany is not mentioned in the statistics as it would be unjust to give Germany's reduction which were demanded by the Allies.

The Journal des Debats, commenting on these statistics in connection with the forthcoming conference, says:

"These figures, and others, show that the situation has reduced its military effort by considerable proportions. She has executed with willingness more than a limitation; she has entered resolutely in the road of diminutions. Certain foreign propaganda pretends that this effort does not count, because it has been done under financial pressure."

Canadian Exports Decrease

Ottawa.—Expressed in percentages, imports from Canada represented 3.51 per cent. of the total imports into the United Kingdom in 1930, compared with 4.95 per cent. in 1929, writes V. E. Duclos, Assistant Canadian Trade Commissioner in London, in the Commercial Intelligence Journal. The United States, which is Britain's largest supplier of goods, also experienced a decline, the figure being 15.33 per cent. in 1930 against 16.67 per cent. in the previous year. Canada took 5.39 per cent. of the United Kingdom's total exports in 1930 compared with 5.95 per cent. in the preceding year. The United States was responsible for only 5.35 per cent. against 6.57 per cent. in 1929.

WITH THE LONE SCOUTS

This week brings us news from our most northerly Lone Scout, who lives at the Hudson Bay Post at Landsdowne House, in Northern Ontario. His name is Walter Wraight, and Walter is quite an outstanding Scout in other respects besides his northerly location.

Coming from the "Old Country" last year, he brought a very fine record with him, and he is the possessor of the coveted "Silver Cross for Bravery" which was bestowed upon him for saving the life of a dog. The Lone Scout Commissioner has a letter from Walter with the dog, a cocker spaniel, that he saved.

On arrival in Canada, he was sent to one of the Hudson Bay Company's Northern Ontario Posts, and he has been in that part of the country ever since, and tells us that he quite enjoys the life, although it is a little lonely at times, especially in the winter time when travelling is difficult and he has to wait for a long time for his mail.

Walter has learned to drive a dog team, but he says that if you talk kindly to the dogs they think that you are a weakling and just lie down on the track and won't budge. It is necessary to use quite strong language to them, before they will take any notice of you. The last mail which the Post received was brought in by dog team, driven by an Italian Priest, and he was quite embarrassed by the fact that the dogs would take no notice of ordinary language, so he compromised by swearing at them in Spanish!

Walter is a Lone Scout indeed! Lately we have noticed several people busily engaged in their gardens, and this reminds us that every Lone Scout will of course have a garden of his very own, which he will lay out and plant to his own liking.

And therefore every Lone Scout

Garden Talks

It is advisable to make your vegetables around the garden from year to year. This practice is known as rotation. One vegetable is grown in exactly the same location each season will be an exhaust all the particular nourishment that vegetable requires and may, also, fill the soil full of disease. Then, too, some degenerate crops, such as Peas and Beans, which actually add fertilizer to the soil must be moved around so that the whole garden will benefit. These will help to compensate for the inroads made by such crops. "Feeders as Carrots, Beets and Corn. In the small garden it is always well to sow a few rows of vegetables extra early, although the bulk of the seed should not go in until the time specified in the seed catalogue, with a little left over to "plant any spots which may have been visited by slugs, frost, rabbits or children. If the first sown vegetables come on all right, and they have about a two to five chance of doing this every year, you will have extra early and satisfactory results, but if they are lost you are only out a few cents for seed. The labor, of course, is not considered in this argument because there is no such thing in gardening which is only healthy exercise, and a pleasure.

Rock Garden Material
Practically all seedsmen list suitable planting material for the rock garden, that interesting little lay-out representing a mountainous range in miniature which can be developed in one's own garden. While there are literally thousands of species of alpine plants from all parts of the world, the number that are proving hardy in Canada is limited, and the novice would be well advised to confine himself at first to any or all of the following varieties which are obtained either as seed or plants: The three best flowers (obtainable in plants only) are: Subulata, in white, pink and lilac; Amoena, pink and variegated in white and pale lavender blue; Viola may be secured in many pleasing colors, there are two Primulas, the coriandras, a rosy lilac, and denticulata, a white to lilac rose, two Arabis, the alpinus, a white, and the alpinus, a pink. Other plants include: Alyssum saxatile compactum (yellow); Aubretia (various); Armeria, (rose and white); Calamintha alpinus (purple); Campanula carpatia, (blue and white); Cerastium tomentosum (grayish foliage with white flowers); Chelidonium alpinum (blue); Dianthus deltoides (rose pink); Gypsophila repens (white); Helianthemum mutabile (various); Iberis amplexicaulis (white); Linaria alpina (blue); Papaver alpinum (mixed, various); Saponaria corymbosa rose; Saxifraga hybrida (various); Silene schaffa (rosy-purple); Tulipa saxifraga (pink); Veronica prostrata (blue). Lychins alpina (bright rose). The secret of successful rock gardening is informality. Use irregularly shaped stones, planted firmly, with the pocket of soil between leading back into the centre of the mound, so that there will be full room for root development and moisture supplies will not be cut off. There must be good drainage. Before attempting to establish one of these gardens it would be well to visit one in your locality, or at least to read a good book on the subject.

Flowers For Bouquets
Some times the beauty of the regular flower garden is marred when blooms are cut for decoration indoors. To avoid this a supply of flowers are often grown in rows in the vegetable patch for cutting purposes only. Here, too, are grown those flowers such as Cornflowers, Scabiosa and Salpiglossis, which have beautiful bloom but poor foliage. The main crop of Asters may also be grown here as these plants occupy a good deal of space before producing flowers. California Poppies, Zinnias and Marigolds can be grown both in the cutting garden and flower border. Planted in rows with the vegetables and receiving regular cultivation these flowers are more easily attended to and often do better on account of the thorough cultivation than when grown in the regular flower garden and, of course, they may be cut a will without disfiguring any border.

Plant Trees Now
Shrubbery, rose bushes, climbers, fruit bushes, fruit and ornamental trees are usually planted as soon as the ground is dry enough to do it. The same rule applies to herbaceous perennials. Once the soil loses the moisture of early spring and the hot, dry winds commence a much larger proportion of plants is likely to die than if set out earlier.

Cheese, Milk and Ice Cream
The consumption of cheese, milk and ice-cream is increasing in Canada. In 1931 the average used per head of population was 2.51 pounds of cheese; 140.1 pounds of milk; and 1.51 pounds of ice-cream.

Liner Eclipses Promised Speed

New C.P.R. Empress May Rival Bremen and Europa

London.—The new $15,600,000 Canadian Pacific steamship, Empress of Britain, left the Gladstone Graving dock at Liverpool over the weekend for the Clyde for her speed trials. Built for a speed of 24 knots, she has already done 22 in her preliminary trials. In further tests she may approach the speed of the Europa and the Bremen.

The Empress of Britain, 73,000-ton ship, now known simply as No. 534, being built at the Clyde bank yard of the Messrs. John Brown & Co., was originally to have been delivered in September, 1933, but the speeding up of construction makes it virtually certain she will be completed five or six months earlier than expected. Thus she will be ready for the summer invasion of Europe by tourists in 1933 instead of being handed over at the beginning of winter, an unprofitable time for steamship companies.

Better an impediment in the speech than in the brain.

About Wags Chickies and Other Little Friends

I told you last week that when they first brought Fluffy, the perian poney, home, Rover didn't care about it very much. Of course he wouldn't hurt her knew Fluffy belonged to her as much as he did, but the house shortly after Fluffy came one day just as he was enjoying a sun bath. She was outside, were up town and I amma and Billy would be fun to Rover thought it and he actually make Fluffy run. She was so surprised her up a tree, after her, but "rise" to think he'd climb a tree all she found he could climb. But even as easily as walking, Rover she when she was with above Rover she was so frigid that she kept on climbing up and up. Then when she was so high up she was afraid to come down. I tell you Fluffy was glad when she saw Mamma Lady and Billy coming home just then. It happened a "little" neighbor boy saw Rover chase Fluffy, so he came over and said, "Rover chased Fluffy up the tree. I saw him."

Mamma Lady looked hard at Rover and said, "Rover, did you chase Fluffy up there? Shame! I didn't think you'd do that." And Rover hung his head and came over slowly, then when he got to Mamma Lady he put up his paw to shake hands. That was his way of saying he was sorry. But Mamma Lady had to punish him for doing that so he wouldn't do it again, and she took his head in her hand and slapped the side of his nose a few times. Don't very hard, for, did you know, you very often need to punish animals. But then hard to make them mind. But then you mustn't let them off altogether, you mustn't let them know what is either, for what is wrong just the same right and wrong boys and girls must be taught. Don't you think so?

Well, Fluffy was away up in the tree seeing all this, and when Mamma Lady looked up at her and called her, she was so excited and delighted she couldn't stand still. She called her again, and do you know what Fluffy did? She didn't climb down this time but she jumped down all the way. It may be she lost her balance, for the branch was so little away up there and she wasn't used to climbing yet. Anyway she jumped down all that way, and what do you think? She landed right on her paws. Kitties always fall on their paws if they slip, did you ever know that? They never fall on their sides where it would hurt like everything else. The way we would most likely fall. No, they never do. Well, when she plunked down right beside Mamma Lady she didn't run either. No, she knew Rover wouldn't run after her again if Mamma Lady was there, so she just waited until Mamma Lady picked her up and took her to the house.

But Fluffy got back at Rover after a few days for running after her like that. She wasn't quite so afraid of him now when he'd come in the house. This is what she did: You see, when Rover is glad he wags his big tail, which is his way of saying he is happy. Well, when he came in one day feeling awfully good and wagging his bushy tail like a good fellow, Fluffy was behind him and she started to play with it. He was so surprised and stopped and looked round at her. But Fluffy knew he couldn't come after her with Billy around. She just hid until he stopped looking at her and as soon as he wagged it again she grabbed it again, and the only way he could keep Fluffy from pulling at his long hair was to keep it real still, and such a funny look came into his brown eyes. He didn't like standing still

Magnesia Best for
Your Indigestion

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants.

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

May Ask Return Of H.G.&B. Bonus

Hamilton May Demand The $25,000 The Company Received Originally If Service Is Discontinued.

In addition to ordering the removal of the H. G. & B. rails and ties within the city limits of Hamilton and the repaving of the streets when the company discontinues its present service, it is possible that the city may demand a return of the $25,000 bonus the company received when the service was inaugurated, plus interest from that time.

A clause in the company's agreement with the city provides that in the event of a passenger and freight service not being maintained the bonus money, plus interest, shall be returned. Attention was drawn to this at the meeting of the board of control when it was agreed that the company should not be allowed to bury its tracks, as requested.

Mayor Peebles suggested that the substitution of busses for electric cars might suffice so far as passenger service was concerned, but no provision was made for freight service.

Officers of Auto Club are Elected

H. Charles Langley was on Thursday chosen by the directors of the Automobile Club of St. Catharines District and Lincoln County as president for 1931, succeeding Don Pepler. The contest for the presidency was between Mr. Langley and A. A. Crause, who was selected as vice-president, and came after Mr. Pepler had ruled out of order a resolution providing for the reelection of all the 1930 officers.

Other officers elected were: Secretary-treasurer, W. B. Rollason; Press representative, F. H. Whitelock; O.M. representative, President Langley; secretary Rollason and past president Pepler; directors, Merritt, A. T. Smith, Vincent, R. J. Moyer; Grimsby, C. W. F. Carpenter; Niagara-on-the-Lake, C. M. Nelson; Queenston, W. W. Armstrong; Thorold, F. M. H. Cushing; Beamsville, Stanley Gibson; Jordan, Wally Hunsberry. Fred Holmes was re-appointed auditor, while Wm. Spence was named as chairman of the sign committee. The traffic committee will this year comprise the entire directorate.

The directors instructed the secretary to write to Mrs. Jackson an expression of regret in the death of her son, Major T. Frank Jackson, for years a faithful member of the club and also secretary-treasurer.

A hearty vote of appreciation was extended to the retiring president for service rendered during the past year. The secretary will write to the Ontario Motor League asking when the Burlington bridge and road will again be open for traffic and if any further delays in the work are anticipated.

GRIMSBY WELL
SITUATED

The prevailing industrial depression has affected all communities to a more or less degree. Happily, however, the town of Grimsby, through the provision of relief work in the extension of the sewerage system, and the steady employment afforded by its industries, has come through the year well and although it has been necessary to furnish relief in a certain number of cases of need, the municipality has, on the whole, not been affected to any serious extent by the slackness in business conditions.

The opening of the spring season and the approach of Blossom Time when the fruit trees will again blossom forth in all their beauty, is an augury of better things to come, giving promise of an abundant harvest if favorable conditions prevail.

Beautifully situated in the "Garden of Canada" adjacent to Lake Ontario and with all the advantages of the progressive community the citizens of the municipality have cause for satisfaction in the favorable situation in which they find themselves.
